sponds to Last Call.

Lieutenant Charles H Reintz, of Truck Company No. 4, Richmond Fire Department, who was hurt while aiding in fighting the fire which destroyed the plant of Binswanger & Co. Inc., on the night of January 17, died of his injuries last night about 7 o'clock at the Memorial Hospital.

For several days his condition had been critical, and surgeons had announced that his chances of recovery were almost hopeless.

With Ladderman it, W. Woodward, of Truck No. 4, Reintz was caught behach a falling wall the morning after the fire while he was still aiding in directing a stream against the mass of ruins from which smoke still is sued. Both men saw their peril and jumped as the wall above them was about to collapse. Their action was too late, however, and both were auried beneath a mass of bricks.

Reintz, who was fifty-six years old, made a fine record for himself in the service of the city. He was connected with the Fire Department for twenty nine years, and during that time established a splendid record for fearlessness and efficiency. Madame Tetrazzini reached Richmond resterday evening about 7 o'clock, leaving the train at Elba Station, where she was met by Mr.

Groner. A crowd of iton huaters saw for a brief moment the great diva caveloped in a long scalakin cont and wearing very fetching yellow satin slippers as she stepped into a limoushue and was driven quickly to the Jefferson Hotel. Entering the paim garden from the Franklin Street side, Madame Tetrazzini exclaimed delightedly that the scene was charming, and, turning to her hasband, pointed out the beauties of the court, which attracted her, she said, more than any place she had seen in America.

Such according to Governor Gillett, is the political situation in the far West. California, while normally a heavy Republican State, is not particularly in sympathy with the progressive movement, and is almost certain to send an instructed delegation for Tait to the national convention. Governor Gillett, who last night addressed the Legislature on the subject of the Panama Exposition to be held in San Francisco in 1915, is stopping at the Jefferson, He is accompanied by Frederick N. Mr. Glies reported that from the study which had been given to the White pian of segregation of taxes some of the provisions would cost Richmond in loss of annual revenue $769,640, and the policy of the measure would tend to throw the principal cities of the State into insolvency. Resolutions were adopted by the board of directors of the chamber reviewing the situation presented by the report of the subcommittee, setting forth the lack of uniformity and supervision of assessments, as a result of which some countles escape their just proportion of taxation.
